This year we’re highlighting former Newman students who currently work in Ministry. Could you contribute Frequent Flier miles to fly a student back to Eugene from his missionary post in South Bronx, NYC? If you’d like to contribute, please contact Andy at 458-215-4211 or development@uonewman.org. Thank you!

Student Leadership Invites You To An All Parish Event!
HERITAGE NIGHT
As students of the Newman Center, we value the support and generosity from you, the parishioners, and want to get to know you. What better place to come together in fellowship than around the table? We humbly invite you all to Heritage Foods Night, an opportunity for students & parishioners to grow in relationship and share their backgrounds. Whether it be an entree, dessert, photograph, or dance, we encourage you to bring it and share your cultural history. Please RSVP on the website link!

What: A potluck dinner to showcase foods from a variety of backgrounds
When: Sat. Feb. 22nd after 5:00pm Mass
Where: Newman Center, downstairs
Who: Students and parishioners
Why: Outreach and bonding

CCS Cold Weather Shelter Program
When the temperature falls below 30 degrees and The Egan WARMING Centers open for temporary shelter for individuals and couples, homeless families with children are referred to Catholic Community Services to receive a motel voucher. The CCS Cold Weather Shelter program is primarily funded by private donations. Last year over $57,000 was spent providing 846 nights of shelter for a total of 467 adults and 476 children. If you feel called to give to the CCS Cold Weather Shelter Program, please call 541-345-3628, x 317 or visit www.ccslc.org. Thank you.
