The Mass is private. Only those participating in the streaming service are allowed in the church.

Scholarship Awards for the 2020-2021 School Year
Generally the scholarships are announced at our Webfoot Gala, but as that has been postponed, we’re making the parish announcements via bulletin.

Herve Memiaghe, awarded $10,000 Brandt Scholarship Fund
Newman parishioner Herve Memiaghe is a Ph.D. candidate at the UO, pursuing his doctorate in Landscape Ecology. He is from Gabon, a country along the Atlantic coast of Central Africa, famous for their large swaths of protected parkland. Herve, his wife Cheryl, and their three children, are active parishioners at Newman.

Alison Hicks, awarded $8,000 Casanova Scholarship Fund
Alison is an active Newmanite! As a Hospitality Minister with the Student Activity Leadership team (SALT), she has been a key figure in creating and participating in both social and spiritual events at Newman, including the recent Heritage Night. Alison is studying Architecture. She is from California.

Marielle Lefave, awarded $5,000 Brandt Scholarship Fund
Marielle came to Newman as a Freshman this year but you may recognize the last name; her brother Anselm has been a Peer Minister with us for the last two years! Marielle is from the Portland, Oregon area. Marielle is pursuing a major in Product Design. She hopes to design useful and beautiful things for the world.

Linnet Edwards, awarded $5,000 Brandt Scholarship Fund
Linnet is familiar to the Newman Staff, as she is the one who has been instrumental in creating and actively participating in the Friday morning student breakfasts. Linnet plans to study abroad to further her studies of language. Receiving a scholarship has helped ease her financial burden. Linnet says, “I am thankful and honored to have received this scholarship. “ Linnet is an Oregonian from the Portland area.
Coffee Talk with Fr. Peter

On Wednesdays at 8:30am, Fr. Peter will be on Zoom and invites you to join him in his chat room. Here is the link to join in, and it is also on the website calendar.

Student Update
RCIA has continuing on Monday nights by way of the internet. The group watches a video together and then has discussion. They are really looking forward to being baptized! We are following the Archdiocese guidelines, and the hope is to have baptisms on Pentecost.

The Student Catholic Daughters met on Sunday by way of Zoom. They are planning a Bob Ross Painting Night, with everyone at their own home and participating with video chat.

Tuesday night was “Newman Nights,” and Peer Minister Jack Boisen gave a talk, with there discussion afterwards.

Newman Staff
Fr. Peter, Fr. Garry, Corinne, Andy and Kathy continue to meet weekly via video chat. It’s great to see each other, and once again enjoy the camaraderie we feel as a staff. We discussed ways we can try to help the parish feel we are still a community.

On a lighter note, we talked about how comfortable it is to watch Mass in a recliner while wearing slippers! Fr. Garry said he is getting so used to saying his homily in an empty church, he’s hoping he doesn’t experience stage fright when the church is full!
A Message from Corinne Lopez
Newman Center Director of Faith Formation

If you have been feeling a little uneasy lately you are not alone. I have been definitely feeling anxious. Mental health professionals tell us that being stressed during these times of uncertainty is to be expected. In a recent homily, Father Garry reminded us that even Jesus had moments of stress, so we are in good company!

Our staff has been working from home during this quarantine. We have been keeping busy with emails, phone calls, and zoom meetings, but it is just not the same. We miss the hubbub of students dropping by the Newman Center at random hours during the day and the din that comes over the center on Sunday nights.

This time of confinement has made me realize how much I long for my Catholic community and how blessed we are to belong to our unique Newman family. Our Newman Center is not your average campus ministry, we are a parish as well! We are distinctive! We are Dominican!

It is the Dominican pillars of prayer, community, preaching and study that provide us with a firm foundation and the life blood that makes us an exceptional Catholic community. Just reading your many comments in last week’s bulletin made me realize how the Dominicans who serve us at the Newman Center have formed us, and have instilled in us a deep sense of community, a spiritual sense that is immersed in the unity we have in Jesus and the Dominicans who have served the Newman Center for over 50 years.

Despite these extraordinary circumstances and our physical distance we remain united in our faith, and it is our faith, and by the grace of our loving God, that we will bear this burden together.

I look forward to the day we experience the sweet reunion! The day we can celebrate the Holy Mass together! Pray that it comes soon!

I asked our parishioners the question:
What do you think you will do first when the quarantine is lifted?

Go out to lunch!
Margaret Stevenson

One thing at the top of my list is going back to my beautiful church again. Hug my kids, that I have not been able to see. Get back to my normal job. And going to the beach...
Kelly Durbin

I want to visit my daughters. I want to see my grandkids! I am so thankful that Facetime has eased some of the pain, but still..
Marjorie Harris

For me it’s a toss up between getting a hair cut, and going out for Chinese Food!
Kathy Hill

HUG THE PEOPLE I LOVE!
If the world is open in June, my hairdresser already has me scheduled for June 1!
Sally Long

When this is over, I want to go to Outback steakhouse with the friars and have a nice juicy steak!
Fr. Peter

We are not all in the same boat. We are not all in the same storm.
For some people it’s a sprinkling. This is a break. It’s a breather. It’s a pause in the “normal.” It’s a time to reconnect with family and slow down. Honestly, it’s kind of peaceful.

For some it’s a storm. It’s a bit scary. It’s disruptive. It’s enough to make you stay up and watch the news and worry.

For some it’s a hurricane. It’s tearing at the boards and pulling off the roof. It’s washing them out to sea. It’s dark and unknown. It’s life changing.

It’s not wrong to be enjoying the sprinkles or enduring the storm, but please don’t negate the difference. Rest with family, but don’t minimize the hurricane engulfing your neighbor. Laugh at a meme, but get on your knees for your friends. Get in someone else’s storm.
