If you’re having a rough time,
please email or phone the priests or other members of staff. Fr. Garry is taking appointments one on one meetings; please contact him directly via: FrGarryOP@gmail.com or the ‘Contact Fr. Garry’ link on our website https://www.uonewman.org/contact-fr-garry.html

BEGINNING IN JUNE
We will add the 7:30pm Mass to the schedule.
However, it is still necessary to call and request to attend a Mass, as our headcount is still limited and we must keep an accurate accounting of who is in attendance, and their contact information. If you have a mask, please use it. We do have some masks available.

Baccalaureate Mass
Sunday, June 14th
7:30pm
UO and LCC Graduates, if you wish to participate in the Baccalaureate Mass, please contact Corinne ASAP! Space is limited!

Clarification on Collecting Names for Mass Sign-ups
Parish sign-up lists are intended to facilitate sign-ups in an equitable manner within the 25-person limit now in place. They also provide a means of contact in the event of a potential exposure at Mass. The lists are intended for internal use by the parish and must be maintained. A parish will follow the guidelines put forth by health officials regarding potential exposure. In the event of an exposure or a confirmed COVID-19 infection, parish staff will contact persons who may have been exposed. A parish may be asked by public health officials for the contact information for the purposes of contact tracing. Therefore, anyone not comfortable with public officials potentially being given their name and contact information should refrain at this time from signing up and attending Mass. The Sunday obligation remains lifted.

The Mysteries of the Rosary
Br. Paul Maria offers the next in his series of reflections on the Rosary

First Luminous Mystery: The Baptism of Our Lord

With the joyful mysteries we meditated the dawning of the coming of the Lord. In the luminous mysteries, the mysteries of the light, we will meditate on the bright preaching of the Lord, during the three years of his public ministry.

Before Jesus started his ministry, his cousin John had prepared the way for him. He had preached a baptism of repentance. He challenged the whole of Judea to change their ways, to return to God. The Church calls us to do the same, most explicitly in the season of Lent, and also on Fridays throughout the year. John the Baptist drew large crowds who heeded his words and were baptized by him in the Jordan.

Into this crowd Jesus first stepped, and asked John to baptize him. John recognizes him, and attempts to stop Jesus. He relents when Jesus insists that it has to be that way. Jesus started his ministry by making the waters of baptism holy. In a way, this doesn’t make sense too much, not until Jesus ends his public ministry. Just before he ascends into heaven, he issues his last command to his disciples: “… make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit, …” (Mt. 28:19)

The baptism of the Lord is also an important milestone in another way. At the end of it is the first public revealing of the three persons of the Trinity. At the Jordan the Son was baptized, the Father declared his approval, and the Holy Spirit descended on the Son.

God the Father declared: “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased” (Mt. 3:17). Through baptism, we can hope that he says the same of us: ‘This is is my beloved child, with whom I am well pleased.’
Going away party for Fr. Peter?
Welcome party for Fr. Emmanuel?

The current circumstances with physical distancing make large gatherings an impossibility right now. Of course we can’t be sure, but we suspect things will open up as we approach the end of summer. We’re hoping to celebrate both Fr. Peter and Fr. Emmanuel at the Parish Barbecue, usually held the first part of September. We’ll pass on information as we learn more about Phase 2 of reopening.

Have you watched our Mass online?

Recently at a staff meeting, we were talking about our streaming Masses. We’ve been amazed at the amount of views they’ve received, not only from our own parishioners, but from all over the world. It’s really a ministry unto itself.

We streamed our first Mass on March 21, and we now have 14 Masses posted at our YouTube channel. Those of you who have recently attended a Mass at Newman have seen the large cameras and the equipment used. Quite a bit of work, by many hands, goes into the streaming of our Mass each week—Dylan, our Techno-Wiz; Rebecca Larson and Al Villanueva, who provide music (and Liam, before he left); our Lectors, our priests. We as a staff thought our parishioners might want to communicate something to the team who create them each week, so the question for the next bulletin is:

Is there anything you’d like to say to the Streaming Team?

Email it to Kathy at secretary@uonewman.org for publication in the next bulletin.

Graffiti at Newman

With our buildings and grounds so quiet, as well as the campus and surrounding neighborhood, graffiti vandals have been at work. We’ve experienced “tags” on some of our fencing and on our concrete. We’re all frustrated at seeing our property disrespected. Being a man of action, Fr. Garry has made a vow to eliminate any vandalism he finds within 48 hours. He researched and found a product called ‘Goof-Off Graffiti Remover.’ He’s made a work kit so he can easily grab it and go to work. Thank you Father Garry!
